(c) if so, the details of the settlement planning envisaged by Government?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF URBAN DEVELOPMENT (SHRI M. ARUNACHALAM): (a) Yes, Sir.

(b) and (c) Urban Development and Planning for Urban Areas is a State Subject and it is the responsibility of the State Governments to draw up suitable urbanisation strategies in keeping with the specific conditions in that State. The National Commission on Urbanisation (NCU) which was constituted by the Government of India in its report had recommended that adequate investment should be made in selected Growth Centres and Regions. For this purpose, they had identified 329 urban areas as Generators of Economic Momentums (GEMS) spread over 49 regions. The recommendations of the National Commission on Urbanisation (NCU) have been forwarded to the State Governments for appropriate action.

Abolition of octroi in Karnataka

1530. SHRI J. P. JAVALI: Will the Minister of URBAN DEVELOPMENT be pleased to state:

(a) whether it is a fact that Octroi was abolished in Karnataka in 1870, and in its place a new tax called Entry Tax was introduced.

(b) whether Government are aware that the Karnataka Government has resolved to re-introduce Octroi and abolish Entry Tax; and

(c) if so, what is the policy of Government regarding abolition of Octroi throughout the country?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF URBAN DEVELOPMENT (SHRI M. ARUNACHALAM): (a) As per the information available with this Ministry, the Octroi was abolished in Karnataka in April, 1979 and the same was replaced by surcharge on sales tax and motor vehicle tax and an Entry Tax on certain commodities.

(b) The Govt. of India is not aware about any such resolution of the Govt. of Karnataka regarding re-introduction of Octroi and abolition of Entry Tax as no such information has been received from the State Government in this regard.

(c) The levy of tax on entry of goods into a local area for consumption, use of sale therein falls at Entry No. 52 of State List of the 7th Schedule of the Constitution of India. In view of this it is for the States to look into the question of abolition of Octroi as the subject falls in the State List. However the question of Octroi was considered by a Committee constituted by this Ministry in pursuance to a Resolution passed in one of the meetings of the Central Council for Local Government and Urban Development. The Committee in its report recommended for partial abolition of Octroi. A copy of the report has been circulated to all the concerned State Governments/U.T. Administrations for taking necessary action.
